

B1	Background and History of School B
-----------	-------------------------------------------

School B is a whole-day primary school located in Kowloon in Hong Kong with a history of over 40 years. It has 30 classes, about five classes per level. It changed to a whole-day school in 2000. It is quite a popular school in the territory because it is located in the school web that has famous secondary schools around it. It led the education trend of the territory in the past, with most of its graduates entering good secondary schools. Beyond its good academic performance, it is also famous for its versatile extra-curricular activities. Students come from well-off families, and their parents are largely professionals.